TELECINE 29. (Dur: 2'09")

Int. Caves. Day.

On the clock ticking steadily.
A minute to. On the CYBERMEN pacing steadily.
And beyond them a glimpse
- the DOCTOR dropping behind a rock as a CYBERMAN turns in his direction.

The three attackers are spread out, sneaking
forward a yard at a time
as in the children's game.

On the clock. Thirty seconds left. Sweat beading on HARRY'S face.
A glint in the DOCTOR'S eye. In his strange way
he is enjoying this final gamble.

A CYBERMAN turns again,
moves towards HARRY.
Discovery is certain. The DOCTOR tosses a lump of rock. It falls behind the CYBERMAN and he swings quickly.

DOCTOR WHO: Get him, Harry.

HARRY leaps at the CYBERMAN'S back. He clings on, rubbing gold dust into the CYBERMAN'S chest unit.

The CYBERMAN swings round, trying to dislodge HARRY.
The second CYBERMAN has drawn a bead on HARRY.
He fires just as the CYBERMAN turns and hits
his compatriot in the head.

The DOCTOR and LESTER are rushing the second CYBERMAN who is momentarily unsure which way to turn. A double volley of gold catches him in the chest and he staggers back, collapsing beside the relay apparatus. He swings his gun towards the DOCTOR.

HARRY'S CYBERMAN pitches forward on his face with HARRY still clinging leech-like to his back.

LESTER flings himself at the second CYBERMAN. His hands reach for the buckle of his rucksack. There is an explosion. A lot of smoke.

A CYBERHEAD comes spinning across the ground out of the smoke. The DOCTOR traps it with a foot.

HARRY gets dazedly to his feet.

HARRY: Lester...

He goes forward with the DOCTOR and bends over LESTER'S crumpled body. One glance is enough. The rucksack is still intact.

The DOCTOR picks the broken countdown clock out of the wreckage of the relay apparatus. It shows two seconds to go.

The DOCTOR bends and puts his ear to the wreckage.

DOCTOR WHO: It's still humming!

The faint power hum
he hears galvanises him into action. He rips off a buckled cover-plate.
